FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What time should I arrive?

Our New Year's Eve celebration will go from 8pm-1am. At approximately 6:00pm EST the Times Square New Year's Eve Ball will be raised to the top of the pole at One Times Square (Broadway at 43rd Street).

Where is the ball lowered?

The Times Square New Year's Eve Ball descends from a flagpole at the top of One Times Square, just steps away from Madame Tussauds New York.

How do I enter Times Square on New Year's Eve?

The best way to come to Times Square is via public transportation. To get to Times Square, the # 1, 2, 3, 7, A, B, C, D, E, F, M, N, Q, R, W, and S shuttle trains all service the Times Square area. Note that certain trains do not run on weekends. In the past, the MTA has advised revelers not to use the 42nd Street Subway Station on New Year's Eve due to crowding conditions — you are advised to exit at one of the surrounding stations and enter Times Square on foot. While the actual time of the system changes depend on the arrival of the revelers for the New Year's Eve Celebration.

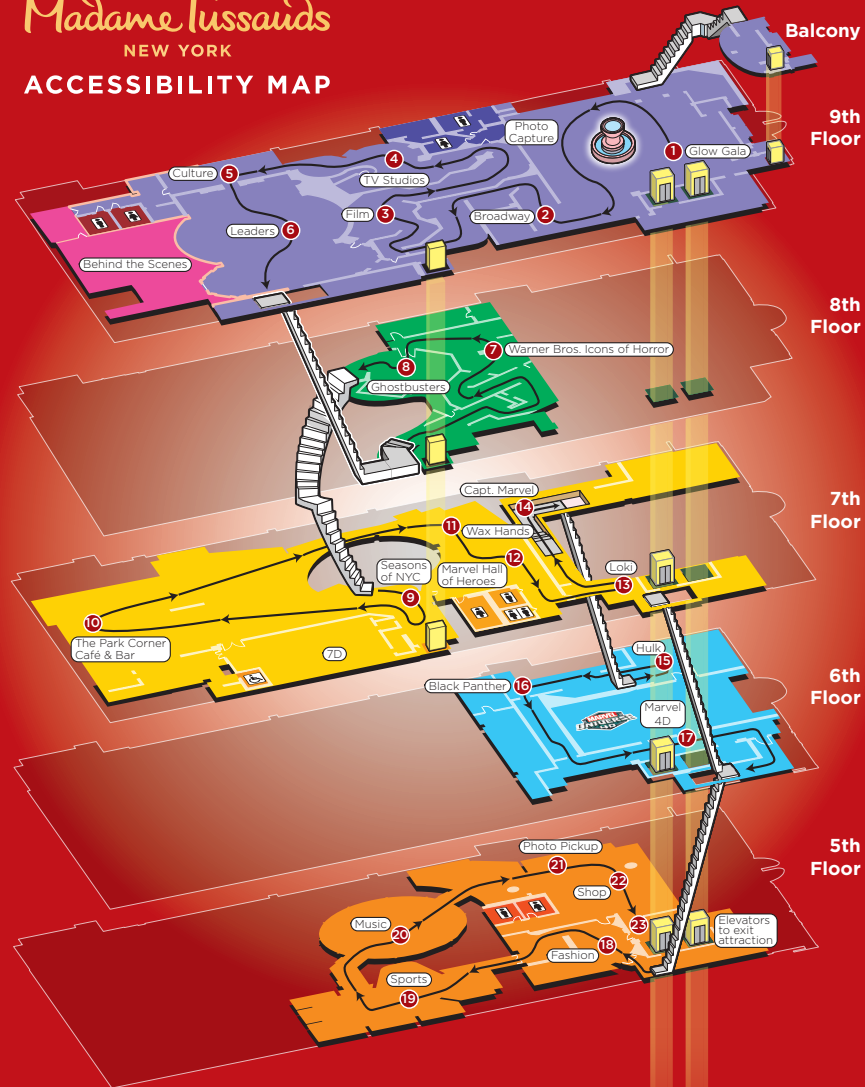

When does early bird pricing end?

Early bird pricing ends on November 31st at 11:59pm
